

ENERGY REBATES

Family Energy Rebate

The Family Energy Rebate helps eligible households pay their electricity bill if they have dependent children and received the Family Tax Benefit payment from the Commonwealth Department of Human Services.

Low Income Household Rebate

The Low Income Household Rebate helps people with eligible concession cards issued by the Commonwealth Department of Human Services or the Department of Veterans' Affairs pay their electricity bill.

Seniors Rebate

Independent retirees who hold a valid Commonwealth Seniors Health Card can apply for the Seniors Energy Rebate.

From July 1 2024, this rebate will increase to $250, per year, to help with the cost of living. Please note that this rebate is for independent self-funded retirees. Pensioners and veterans may be eligible for the $350 Low Income Household Rebate.

Gas Rebate

The NSW Gas Rebate helps people who hold eligible concession cards issued by the Commonwealth Department of Human Services or the Department of Veterans' Affairs pay their natural gas or residential LPG bills.

ENERGY REBATES

Life Support Rebate

The Life Support Rebate helps people pay their electricity bills if they are required or have someone living with them who is required to use approved energy-intensive equipment at home.

This rebate will be up to $1,639 for each equipment type.

Medical Energy Rebate

The Medical Energy Rebate helps people who hold eligible concession cards issued by the Commonwealth Department of Human Services or the Department of Veterans' Affairs pay their electricity bill if either they or someone living with them has an inability to self-regulate body temperature when exposed to extremes of environmental temperatures (hot or cold).

Energy Accounts Payment Assistance Scheme

The Energy Accounts Payment Assistance (EAPA) Scheme helps people experiencing a short-term financial crisis or emergency to pay their electricity or natural gas bill. This scheme is only for short term assistance.

The Federal Government has announced that households will receive (up to) $300 and eligible small businesses will receive (up to) $325 to help with the cost of their energy bills in financial year 2024/25.

The NSW Government is currently working with the Federal Government to determine how the payment will be delivered.
